Title: I will be me

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Yeahhh

It keeps rainin' in my head. wont stop fallin'
Things were done and words were said. that wont stop haunting me
I could chose not to forgive and lose my innocence and face the fate of those who live.
In foolish confidenence. Who I am where I stand

I will be me

This I know for sure. and i'll still believe when there's darkness at my door
I'm holding on (holdin on)..... to the fire burning deep inside of me
Yeahhh... In this crazy mixed up world
