Just an ordinary cat with an ordinary life and a sence of importance exhibitions and commercials and powder cream

Just an ordinary brat with extremly dirty hands and a very dirty mind he seduced her with a fish and with very gently hands

She was in for a surprice the brat by her side was really a mouse she had to escape
cause rats keep looking for cats to rape

On a sunny afternoon in the ordinary world she was finding out how life could be
On a sunny afternoon in the ordinary world
she found out it is very scary to be free
In the ordinary world on a sunny afternoon
he was chasing a dream
In the ordinary world on a sunny afternoon no one is just who they seem

And now to something quiet different when you forget to pay the rent you find yourself on the street all alone and none of your friends are at home you feel like you're twelve inches tall you bang your head to the wall everyone tells you're wrong and now we get back to the song.....

Just an ordinary day , the sun was shining bright and dogs were barking loud she was catched by a mouse and kicked by a girl

She was in for a surprice
the brat by her side was really a mouse
she had to escape
cause rats keep looking for cats to rape

On a sunny afternoon in the ordinary world
she was finding out how life could be
On a sunny afternoon in the ordinary world
she found out it is very scary to be free
In the ordinary world on a sunny afternoon
he was chasing a dream
In the ordinary world on a sunny afternoon
no one is just who they seem

On a sunny afternoon in the ordinary world
she was finding out how life could be
On a sunny afternoon in the ordinary world
she found out it is very scary to be free
In the ordinary world on a sunny afternoon
he was chasing a dream
In the ordinary world on a sunny afternoon
