

Of all the times you've walked away
There's never been a day
When you've cried so long
Yet seem so strong
I know this ain't your way
I can't imagine what he's done
To make you feel this way
Girl you lose inside
You stay out all night
I guess this is your way
Of saying

I'm tired of tryin'
And I'm tired of lyin'
I know I've been smilin'
But inside I'm dyin'
I'm tired of fakin' that my heart's not achin'
I can't stay, no way

I always knew this day would come
So I guess now's the time to say
Girl just run to me
So that you can see
It should've always been this way
You've lived some sad and lonely days
But now they're in the past
Cause you're here with me
Saying this could be
Girl I guess this is your way
Of saying

I'm tired of tryin'
And I'm tired of lyin'
I know I've been smilin'
But inside I'm dyin'
I'm tired of fakin' that my heart's not achin'
I can't stay, no way
