

I collapse
For working harder than
The average work-aholic
I intend on reaching further than, infinite
To get exactly what
I fight so hard and labor for
And try to search me for
Who I intend to be

Not for you
You're too hard to please
How do I meet
Your impossible needs?
How can I reach
With you pulling on me?
With your
Impossible needs
Impossible needs
How can I reach
With you pulling on me?

Why suffer to hang on?
By the way that you throw me
One hand to just hang on
And the other to catch me
One too many clicks past
The second that you were so happy
I can't go back around again

Not for you
You're too hard to please
How do I meet
Your impossible needs?
How can I reach
With you pulling on me?
With your
Impossible needs
Impossible needs
How can I reach
With you pulling on me?

In a roundabout way
I'm better than this
But you keep me from thinking of sad
On what I believe I am
And what you think makes me a man

How do I meet
Your impossible needs?
How can I reach
With you pulling on me?
With your
Impossible needs
Impossible needs
How can I reach
With you pulling on me?
