What can be done in order for you to percieve that I'm not falling behind
That's your vision, your delusion
I was here to begin you've interrupted all conclusions
But we haven't begun and you've placed your number ones instead

So what I'm different would you prefer if we're all like her?
You see the external illusion, we're all the same

CHORUS:

I don't wanna be, gone, I don't wanna be
When I am around
Why do you wanna see, she's someone that isn't me
I don't want to be
Invisible

When will this end? On who we will depend?
And you're looking for the trend from the one who came along and now we're trapped
Who's to blame, No one either than the other
Well you're back to where we were, never longing? over what's prefer

You never listen, told us to mind our business
Lies tries to ride your feelings
Words hide behind their meanings

CHORUS:

I don't wanna be, gone, I don't wanna be
When I am around
Why do you wanna see, she's someone that isn't me
I don't want to be
Invisible

What can I do? Just let it all pass through
I can't see you(?)to believe in what's true

I don't wanna be (what can i do?)
I don't wanna be (what can i do?)
I don't wanna be (what can i do?)

CHORUS:

I don't wanna be, gone, I don't wanna be
When I am around
Why do you wanna see, she's someone that isn't me
I don't want to be
(Repeat x 2)
