

Panda eyes and your sister's dress that you took and you tore
And you know that you got a long walk home
Pick your way over drunken shapes on the lawn by the pool
And you lost both your shoes that his Mom's gonna find

Her dress,
Your shoes,
Little flower bruise
Old smoke in your hair,
No subway fare, but you just don't care

Heart shines like a neon sign
For tonight won't you just be mine
Invisible girl, in the sodium light
She's the Queen of the Night

Crown starts to slip and fade, little feet on the street tired girl in someone else's clothes
Stand in the quiet house, making tea, making toast
Making room for your daytime ghost

Her dress,
Your shoes,
Little flower bruise
Old smoke in your hair
No subway fare, but you just don't care

Heart shines like a neon sign
For tonight won't you just be mine
Invisible girl, in the sodium light
She's the Queen of the Night

Heart shines like a neon sign
For tonight won't you just be mine
Invisible girl, in the sodium light
She's the Queen of the Night

Your sun is the evening star
Your temple the downtown bar
Invisible girl, in the sodium light
She's the Queen of the Night
She's the Queen of the Night
