

Caught you sleeping on the railroad track
You were so tired that you took a nap Tied you up while you were on your back and they told you that your name was Jack

Well, they thought you might have been the missing link
Make some big cash with those two big feet
A carnival crew's on the city street
Pay admission just to see the freak-named Jacko...

A sign of the times
Please forgive we're just human kind
People don't see You're a child and you don't want to be a Jacko.

Big hotel on the news today by the old fishin' hole where you used to play It's prime real estate I would have to say But your home will never look the same

Well, profit shares and the bottom line
Make it to Wall Street with a glass of wine
Your chemical dump I don't really mind
Now I'm bald and I'm going blind

Poor Jacko...
Humanity it speaks of all that it wants to be
and as you can see
All we dish out is hypocrisy to Jacko.
Jacko...
A sign of the times
Please forgive we're the human kind
People can't see
You're a child and you don't want to be
a Jacko.....
...Just call him Jacko
...Call him Jacko.

I am not your missing link and I am not your prize for a hunting expedition under starry skies Keep me in the wilderness where I can breath the air Maybe one day we will meet but hey - leave your gun there
If you must come leave your gun there

[Jack-hey-Jacko-a-hey-a-Jacko-call him-Jack-Jacko-call him-hey-call him-hey-
Just call him Jacko].

Back in the deep wood a line in the sand by an old oak tree - You will make your stand
If they find you back there you have had it man They're gonna kill ya anyway they can

Poor Jacko...
A sign of the times
Please forgive we're the human kind
People can't see
You're a child and you don't want to be
To be?
Jacko....
Humanity it speaks of all that it wants to be
And as you can see
All we dish out is hypocrisy to Jacko.
