Title: Key to a unlocked door

---

Heroes come, heroes go and I stand in line.
Heroes come, heroes go, I'll be the next for sure
Heroes come, heroes go, turn water into wine.
Heroes come, heroes go, I am back for more.

Heroes come, heroes go and I stand in line.
Heroes come, heroes go, turn water into wine.
Heroes come and all alone and far away from home.
You've got to be a hero just to get a decent man.

Write your number 666 with kisses from cold deadly lips,
Draw a circle round you like a wall
to keep away creatures and all.
The darkness that surrounds you now
is reality maybe somehow,
You did your rituals, made mistakes,
burned out and got to this place.

You can't stop and you can't hide
all the might deep down inside.
Like the minotaur in his cave,
you go in and lose your head.
You threw away the key from your prison -
you can see it's me.
Bang your head against the wall,
while I use the open door.

REF: Back and alive, I'm stronger than before.
Back and alive, with the key to an unlocked door.
I'm back and alive, I'm stronger than before.
I'm back and alive, with the key to an unlocked door.

REF: Back and alive.....
I'm back and alive, I'm back and alive,
I'm back and alive.....
