let me sleep I'm through now I'll just close my eyes I know I didn't do it it's too late to explain I'm tired - he's screaming
he knows where I've been I was gonna say something maybe

he says I taste like rubber I can't change his mind
he thinks he's right he thinks I'm lying I've heard stories like this but not about me
I'm tired - he's screaming
