Na na na nananananana
Na na na nananananana na na na

Here I stand, alone again but not really on my own.
I can leave you, but I'll never, never leave this child alone.
(I)don't want no man to play his father,
like father and son.
(I)wanna watch him grow, teach him all the things, the things I know.

REF: Wanna watch him grow, grow,
Wanna watch him grow, grow.
Maximilian Klaus Kilian,
I'll be there for you `till the end of time.

Na na na nananananana,
Na na na nananananana na na na

Times will change,
he will grow up and I'll take him by the hand,
Lead him through his life,
through pain and darkness, right into the light.
Love don't last for ever,
but this dagger in my back came much too soon.
(You say) love changes fast
and promises are only there to break.
Responsibility is all too clear to me,
You blinded me so I was blind, too blind to see.

REF: Wanna watch him grow.....
Na na na.....
