

Long long time ago
Shake off your shoes
Kick off your boots
Here's what she said to me
The world is a possibility
And even though I grown old
I still believe in
Everything she told to me
Sometimes I'm an invisible man
You can't see me
But can understand
I'm just one grain in your pile of sand
I never fit in to your plan
My grandma said when she took me aside
Gonna make many many chances in life
Gonna make many mistakes in time
Just make sure you don't lose your mind

Even though I've grown old
I still believe in
Everything she told to me
Find yourself and thats for sure
Whether you're rich
Or whether you're poor
When the handles broke
And open comes the door
Leave tonight, what ya waiting for?
My grandmom is dead and gone
Me I'm still traveling on
Dark as night fades into dawn
Stars at night fade into morning time

Even though I've grown old
Still believe in
Everything she told to me
Even though I still young
Still believe in everything I've done
And Even though I've grown old
Still believe in
Everything she told to me
