[Jay-z]

Yo, yo first i snatched the street then i snatched the charts,
First had they ear now i hav they're heart,
Rappers came and went,
I've been hear from the start,
Seen them put it together
Watch them take it apart,
See the rollers roll up wit ribbons
I see the we poe, we sold then we driven
So when i reload, he holds #1 position
When u hot i'm hot
And when my feet cold mines is sizzelin
It's plain to see
Nigga's can't f wit me
Cuz ima be that nigga fo life
This is not an image
This is got given
This is hard liven
Mixed wit crystall sippin
It's the most consistent

[chorus]

I get down for my grandfather who took my momma
Made her sit that seat where white folks aint wanna us to eat
At the tender age of 6 she was arrested for the sit in
With that in my blood i was born to be different
Now niggas can't make it to battles to chose leadership
But we can make it to jacobs to  the dealership
That's why i hear new music
And i jus dun b feelin it
Racism still alive they jus be consealin it
But i know they don't want me in the damn club
They even made me show I.D to get up in to sam's club
I did dirk and went to church and get my hands scrubbed
That why i've baptised at least 3 or 4 times
But in the land where nigga's pray
U con's are getting paid
It gon take a lot more than coupons to get *****
Notin sadder than that day my girl father past away
So i promised to MR.rany i'm gonna marry your daughter
And u know i'd like to thank u for they way that she was brought up
And i know that u were smiling when u see that car i bought her
But i can't complaint what the accident did to my left eye
Cuz look what a accident did to left eye
First to me and now romeo must die
I know a got angels watchin me from the other side
