Title: No Tears In The Rain

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

In my world there is nothing quite like this pain All your dreams, your illusions They're like tears in the rain

Eyes stare blank You don't reach don't you need me Can't you see that this needs be and no one else really cares See me See my world in another light So full of life new beginnings and our souls burn so bright

I Don't dream I'm falling anymore...

illusions They're like tears in the rain

Your eyes stare back You don't reach out, don't you need me Can't you see how this bleeds me And no one else really to cares
