

Best of friends, where'd they all go?
Try to find but no one ever knows.
This small town will make you wanna stay.
Who the hell would want to anyway?
Well, I'm leavin'.

And I want it all.
Thought I got it all.
Well, I finally saw and I found out where it's all at.

Better now than all before.
Tried it once and now I want it more.
Memories are cut in half.
Tell the truth and then watch 'em laugh.
Well, I'm laughin'.

And I want it all.
Thought I got it all.
Well, I finally saw and I found out where it's all at.

Sell it all, watch and learn.
Sell it all, watch it burn.

Steal a car; we're all headed south.
You know the score so just shut your mouth.
One more run, then I want out.
Not like them, I'd rather go without.
Without needing.

And I want it all.
Thought I got it all.
Well, I finally saw and I found out where it's all at.
Well, I knew it all.
Well, I never fall.
Well, I finally saw and I found out where it's all at.
