Title: One Man Wrecking Machine

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

I built a time machine
I'm Going to see the homecoming queen
Take her to the Christmas dance
Maybe now I'll get in her pants
Whatever

Back with my high school friends
Meeting where the train tracks end
Passin' 'round a skinny joint Rolling up to lookout point

I wanna pull it apart and put it back together
I wanna relive all my adolescent dreams
Inspired by true events on movie screens
I am a one man wrecking machine

Back in my parent's house
Back to the shouting out loud
One day you'll be a man
One day you'll understand

I wanna pull it apart and put it back together
I wanna relive all my adolescent dreams
Inspired by true events on movie screens
I am a one man wrecking machine

Inspired by true events on movie screens
I am a one man wrecking machine

Here in the present tense
Nothings making sense
Waiting for my moment to come
Everything
