(Intro)

Swing high then swing low
I know we all know
Swing high then swing low
I know

(K-Os)

I was rushing to the end
But you're everything I saw, again
And hoping to pretend
I was knocking on heavens door my friends
But I was just a fool, caught up in the game
Everything was cool, believing in my name, instead of his
And when the sun came out
I couldn't find the shade, I am not afraid
Of the light anymore

(Chorus)

Patience
Heavens on your side be patient
The universe is wise
Patience
Everything is grand
Use patience
And you can understand

(K-Os)

Now everyone knows
We hold the key deep in our souls

But we are living a life, on the surface yo
What is the purpose of living lies, somebody tell me
Some hearts are made of stone (of stone)
They'll find their way back home (home)
I know I walk the path of life eternally
To be free, its all time

(Chorus)

Patience
Heavens on your side be patient (heavens on your side)
The universe is wise (and you know the time will make you wise)
Patience
Everything is grand use patience (use patience)
And you can understand (and you can understand)

(Outro)

Swing high then swing low
I know we all know
Swing high then swing low
I know
