

I'm not the devil
And that's untrue
I'm just not like you
Anger holds my hands
Keeps me in seclusion, A prison
But I can't help it
I hate everyone, even you

Chorus:
See it breathing
All the hate and denial
Lied to again
Left out
feeling hollow and broken
I saw the devil
Crawl inside your heart
Buying my soul
Tearing me apart

Sit in my room
Locked away
Constricted
The burning ash
And choking smoke
Dry out my insides
But I'll still fight this
Every single day
Till death

Chorus:
See it breathing
All the hate and denial
Lied to again
feeling hollow and broken
I saw the devil
Crawl inside your heart
Buying my soul
Tearing me apart

See everything fall around me
I can't help anyone now
How many times do I have to die
There's no blood left in my wrists
In my wrists, In my wrists
Find a way back inside of my mind
Reasons just slip away
You can't hold back again
Will you find a reason why
I should not go
No I don't care
No not this time
For the reasons why

I'm not the devil
And that's untrue
I'm just not like you
Anger holds my hands
Keeps me in seclusion
A prison
