Let it take hold (x 4)
We have perverted, destroyed the truth
Exchanged for a slant or fiction that feeds the part of me
That will become the darkest place of all
One thought, one word spoken
All of this exist unto you
In everything I believe and see that confirms the love
We have perverted, destroyed the truth
Exchanged for a fabrication
This hope that lies within
This hope that lies within exposed for all to see
Let it take hold
let it take hold
I choose a perfect way(x4)
In everything I believe and see that confirms the love
Can I receive this gift, never ceasing?
This hope that lies within, let it take hold
