

Ooooooooooh
ohhhhhhhhhhh ohhhh yeah yeah

Can you pretend to be the man I should have been with can we make the life?
you know I should have had Can we do a better job of pretending that you really care Or ill have to give the part to someone else

You seem to have an important part the leading role of my heart You played it well a long time ago until I started falling in love And then you changed you character and avoided all of your lines now the man I love is gone now can you plays is part or just try

can you pretend to be the man I should have been with
can you make the life
you know I should have had
can you do a better job of pretending that you really care or ill have to give the part to someone else

Love is like a see saw it takes two in order for it to work I working hard Im playing my part but the scean still won't work and rehearsals are long because your timing is all wrong so ill find someone who loves me and can play your part for life

I deserve alot better than this and im tired of acting like its okay for me to give you my love and recieve nothing back in return

can you pretend to be the man
I should have been with
Can you make the life?
You know I should have had
Can you do a better job of pretending that you really care?
Or ill have to give the part to someone else

Can you pretend to be the man?
