

Lately it seems she keeps hitting him over the head with one word: when?
Should they go left or right or maybe high or low?
Why can't he pretend?

That things will stay the same and he can just keep on...

[Chorus]

Chillin' out and sleepin' in on Mondays
Has she been wastin' all her time?
'Cause he's so not into
Waking up and workin' 9 to 5 all week
The kids, the house, the dog, and the SUV
will they ever agree?

Sometimes she wonders if they're ever gonna live up to who they could be;
the real world is heading for them like a high speed train and
And he's not ready

He wants things to say the same so he can just keep on...

[Chorus]

Chillin' out and sleepin' in on Mondays
Has she been wastin' all her time?
'Cause he's so not into
Waking up and workin' 9 to 5 all week
The kids, the house, the dog, and the SUV
will they ever agree?

Yeah yeah yeah
She really doesn't know where they stand
Find a compromise or she'll walk away
He really loves her but then again
He wants it to stay the same
She really want a change but
He wants to keep on...

[Chorus]

Chillin' out and sleepin' in on Mondays
Has she been wastin' all her time?
'Cause he's so not into
Waking up and workin' 9 to 5 all week
The kids, the house, the dog, and the SUV
will they ever agree?

yeah yeah yeah

[Chorus]

Chillin' out and sleepin' in on Mondays
Has she been wastin' all her time?
'Cause he's so not into
Waking up and workin' 9 to 5 all week
The kids, the house, the dog, and the SUV
will they ever agree?
