

quietly
explodes your love
your insecurity is so soft to me I can't let you breathe in we are fallin' into us I see you dying in my eyes

just let it all go
you're left
so am I
we go insane
so am I
we leave all inside

quietly
we arrive
my insecurity is so soft to you You can't let me breathe in we are fallin' in too deep I'm dying in your open mouth

so am I
we go insane
so am I
you leave all, you leave all inside

so am I
we go insane
so am I
we leave all inside

so you can
leave them all
so you can
leave them all
and you can't go on with your lies
it's a fact we can't deny if you have to go
please go quiet, please go quietly

so am I
we go insane
so am I
we leave all inside
