

You say you love me but you cannot leave him
So now im leaving you for this here same reason
Cause time change and so do the season
And the seasons changed
So I listen to what you say
But I dont believe a word you say

You say you love me but you cannot leave him
So now im leaving you for this here same reason
Cause time change and so do the season
And the seasons changed
So I listen to what you say
But I dont believe a word you say

I just wanted to get over you
But i cant stop thinkin about you
Not a second goes by that youre not in my head
You dick me over again and again
But I still remain your friend
Its time for this to end

You say you love me but you cannot leave him
So now im leaving you for this here same reason
Cause time change and so do the seasons
And the seasons changed
Will he still love me tomorrow?

For way too long you fucked with my mind
Ive sang this song way too many times
And you need to know its gone on for way too long
Thought it would be just the two of us in the end
But now im leavin and your not even my friend
Was that the way you felt for real?

You say you love me but you cannot leave him
So now im leaving you for this here same reason
Cause time change and so do the seasons
And the seasons changed
Will he still love me tomorrow?
Tonight i feel the lovin in your eyes
