

I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house. [x4]

Boy there's so many things to give.
I've been aware of your charms for so long and there's nothing that you can do to stop me from coming around, round
to your house. [x4]

I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house. [x2]
I'll be your queen upon a throne in your house.
I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house.

You can build it from bricks and stone,
but there's still no point in being alone.
So unlock your door I'm coming through
'cos this hearts got a message for you.

I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house.
To your house. [x3]

I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house. [x2]
I'll be your queen upon a throne in your house.
I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house.

By land or sea I'm coming home to your house.
Come fly with me I'm comin' home to your house.
I'll be your queen upon a throne in your house.
I'll make you scream aloud with joy in your house.
I'll bring you gifts, cash money too to your house.
I'll bring it all on home to you to your house.
There'll be no black there'll be no white in your house.
There'll be no day there'll be no night.

Have mercy, mercy, mercy. [x2]
Have mercy, mercy, mercy, mercy, mercy,
Mercy, mercy, mercy, mercy, mercy.
'Cos you nere.
Mercy on me. [x3]

I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house. [x2]
I'll be your queen upon a throne in your house.
I'll make you scream aloud with joy in your house.
I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house.
There'll be no war there'll be no war in your house.
I'll bring you peace I'll bring you love to your house.
I'm coming home, I'm coming home to your house.
