

There's something special about you
Could it be a spell you put on me that got me loving you
In the middle of the night
Baby, I wake up to, to a cold sweat, yeah
Cause I'm thinkin' of you
It seems to me like its make believe
A dream girl like you
Wanting to be with me
So I pinch myself
To see if you fade away, never went away
So I said to myself

If I would've known then
What I know now
I would've saved my love for you, only you (only you)
But since I didn't know then
What I know now
There's one thing that I know
I'm glad I saved the best for last
Oh
Oh yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I always think about me and you
And shed a tear
For every year that me and you should have been
I could always tell you how I feel
Cause mamma told me never let your silence speak for you
It seems to me like its make believe
A dream girl like you
Wanting to be with me
So I pinch myself
To see if you fade away, never went away
So I said to myself

If I would've known then
What I know now
I would've saved my love for you, only you (only you)
But since I didn't know then
What I know now
There's one thing that I know
I'm glad I saved the best for last

All the pain I experienced
Bad relationships coulda been avoided
If I only knew you were out there
I would have saved all of my love for you
If I only knew

If I would've known then
What I know now
I would've saved my love for you, only you (only you)
But since I didn't know then
What I know now
There's one thing that I know
I'm glad I saved the best for last

If I would've known then
What I know now
I would've saved my love for you, only you (only you)
But since I didn't know then
What I know now
There's one thing that I know
I'm glad I saved the best for last

If I would've known then
What I know now
I would've saved my love for you, only you (only you)
But since I didn't know then
What I know now
There's one thing that I know
I'm glad I saved the best for last
