

I've been watching the clock all night, i'm done.. i know the night is young.
You've been talking the ears clean off my head..
Therefore i haven't heard a word you've said.
Anyway.. we fall away.. your tongue is bleeding from all your sharp words.
Could you hit me from where i am?
And would you hit me now where i stand?
I've been listening you know that.. obviously you know that.
Anyway.. we fall away.. your tongue is bleeding now.
Anyway.. it's the way.. i am leaving now.
I can't breathe.
Anyway.. it's the way.. my throat is bleeding now.
Anyway.. it's the way.. i am leaving now.
I can't breathe.
