

Lachrymose they saw him leaving
Riding along the skyline flame
His shrieks shall forever echo
Over valleys and hills
Mesmerized by the evil
Let the imperial one rule
Ornated in blood we stand
And in his eyes shone victory

In from the darkness he'll return
To his fortress
Standing here with pride
The skyline flame

Paralyzed by the dark one
Riding along the skyline flame
The one who leads us in darkness
And takes us to the flaming depths
We have seen the abyss
We crave its infernal deep
We light our candles
And let them light the way
