

Well a star just broke
I'm relying on your tasteless joke
What's up with that hotshit story?
Don't worry cause it's not broken
It's just swollen

Can't anticipate
On how you're feeling from day to day
Well how about you now that you're needing
Don't worry cause they're laughing
And you're bleeding

Well I'm drowning in your ocean
It's much cooler in slow motion

Don't care where've you went
Not really on how much you spent
Well it's obvious that you bore me
I'm not worried cause there's five minutes
'Till your glory

Well I'm drowning in your ocean
It's much cooler in slow motion

Leave it all to me and I will
Be the one there that sees that you stand still
Everyone sees your eyes getting wider
Everyone here believes you're a liar
You're a liar

A star just broke
I'm relying on your tasteless joke
Right after you punched a hole in
Don't worry cause it's not broken
It's just swollen

Anticipate
On how you're feeling from day to day
Since it's obvious that you bore me
I'm not worried cause there's five minutes
'Till your glory

Leave it all to me and I will
Be the one there that sees that you stand still
Everyone sees your eyes getting wider
Everyone here believes you're a liar
You're a liar
