

Tell me baby what you wanna say
Your back again for old times sake
Tell me baby what you trying to do
Listen up cause I'm telling you
You ain't ever coming back again
Make the most of the time we spent
I ain't ever gonna hurt no more
I heard your lies ten times before

You ain't ever coming back again
For no down town diddy
You ain't ever coming back again

You know what
If I break your little heart in two (you know what)
Ain't nothing like the things you do (you know what)
And if it all comes back to you
You know what, so what
You know what
I need a lover who'll be there for me (you know what)
But you never gave a guarantee (you know what)
Gotta tell you that your history
You know what so what, so what

Baby I'm the one who got away
Bet you thought I'd be hear to stay
I don't want you like I did before
Guess I don't need you no more

You ain't ever coming back again
For no down town diddy
You ain't ever coming back again

So get out of my way yeah x 4

Once bit, twice shy, you ain't got no alibi
Tick tock, don't stop, what you got just ain't enough

You know what
If I break your little heart in two (you know what)
Ain't nothing like the things you do (you know what)
And if it all comes back to you
You know what, so what
You know what
I need a lover who'll be there for me (you know what)
