(Rick Roberts)

Someday soon---we're gonna quit this crazy runaround
Pack our bags and steal away
Someday soon---we're gonna find a place and settle down
I'll be coming home someday
I'll be there to kiss you in the morning
I'll be by your side each afternoon
Late at night, our love, like rivers pouring
---Loving you---someday soon
Someday soon---we're gonna leave this foolish fantasy
Find the strength to let it go
Someday soon, you're gonna see how much you mean to me
Even more than you could know
Now I can see you can't hang on forever
Even tho' you love me like you do
---Love is all that's keeping us together
I love you---Someday soon
