

I've spent half my lifetime watching time go by
And wonderin' where it went
And when I try to fall asleep at night I lay there feeling spent Contemplating what the next day's Gonna hold for me Tossing, turning
My mind is churning thoughts won't let me be Every morning meets me
With a list of all I have to do
And every evening greets me
With the knowledge that I'm never through And every taste of success Makes me vow to never fail Feels like I just chase my tail chorus

There's gotta be something more Than running circles for a living
Gotta be something better
Than just trying to survive
Gotta some more important piece
That I am missing
Gotta be something more to life

If every picture tells a story Mine must be a mystery Cause I lose sight of who I am And who I am supposed to be looking back at what I've built and all that I've achieved only leads me to believe yeah

There's gotta be something more
Than running circles for a living
Gotta be something better
Than just trying to survive
Gotta some more important piece
That I am missing
Gotta be something more tired of these hopeless places bored with my earthly things so i must fill my empty spaces with the love that heaven brings chorus 2x
