Title: Something New

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

If I had the choice I'd rip out your eye lids so you wouldnt sleep without me I'd cut out my tongue to keep from choking on the words I never said

The stars will never look the same again without you by my side when I get my way I wish that you will stop changing or maybe stop breathing I'd turn off the lights, kiss your lips, then rip them off of your face so long...good-bye to you...its time for something new
