Title: Spectators For My Spectacles

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Standing years in front of my dead reflections; when I climax I want to only see me looking back at me.
When I indulge my self I want you to scan me.
You admire in the beginning, I apex in the end.
I built this structure around myself for you to be a spectator for my spectral.
I admire in the beginning, you apex in the end.
