

verse 1

and when i hold you in my arms i promise you you'll gonna feel the love that's beautiful and new this time i'll love you even better than i ever did before and you'll be in my heart forevermore..

we, we're just too young to know we fell inlove and let it go so easy to say the words goodbye so hard to let the feelings die i know how much i need you now the time is turning back somehow as soon as our herts and soul unite i know for sure we'll get the feeling's right chorus

and now we're starting over again it's not the easiest thing to do i'm feeling inside again coz everytime i looked at you i know we're starting over again this time we'll leave all the pain away welcome home my lover and friend coz we are starting over over again

verse 3

if we never leave and love then we might have never known all the times we spent apart all we did was break each other's heart ohh..hoooh..

you'll gonna feel the love that's beautiful and new this time i'll love you ever better than i ever did before and you'll be in my heart forever more...

and now we're starting over again
coz everytime i looked at you
welcome home my lover and friend
coz we are starting over over again this time we'll chase all the rain away welcome home my lover and friend

coz we are starting over over again... we are starting over over again..
