

Close your Eyes and imagine I'm here with you
To keep you safe from the Dark
Secretly, I've been with you Night and Day
Can't believe you are going away

Where's the Passion we had
Tell me where
'Cause I want to see you again ...

Stay for another Night
Don't leave me here on my own,
Look at me see me crying for you
Till the dawn,
See the Sun, see the new Day begin
I'm wanting you, and I'm begging you to stay!

Here I am, looking back at the time
That we spent at the Moments of Love.
Silly me, I didn't hear you say
"Let me be, set me free for a Day!"

Stay for another Night
Don't leave me here on my own,
Look at me see me crying for you
Till the dawn,
See the Sun, see the new Day begin
I'm wanting you, and I'm begging you to stay!

Everyday is like the Last
Memories coming from the Past
I am standing on the Top of the Mountain ...
Calling your Name ...

Where's the Passion we had
Tell me where
'Cause I want so see you again

Stay for another Night
Don't leave me here on my own,
Look at me see me crying for you
Till the dawn,
See the Sun, see the new Day begin
I'm wanting you, and I'm begging you to stay!

Little Face, I Can't forget your
Smiling face,
How could i let you go
