

A mother called me the other day
Said her baby had run away
I said I don't know a thing about it
I wouldn't tell you if I did
Maybe she didn't like all your rules
Maybe she didn't like your cooking
Maybe she didn't like her daddy coming in her room at night -Better

Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away
Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away -Don't come near me
Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away
Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away -I don't need your shit

A friend was over the other night
She and her boyfriend had been in a fight
He beat her 'til she was black and blue
She said he threatened to kill her too
He's been stalking her for weeks now
Says there's nothing she can do
A court order will not stop him
Now she went and bought a gun -Better

Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away
Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away -Don't come near me
Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away
Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away -I don't need your shit

Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away
Stay away, Stay away, Stay Away, Stay Away, Stay Away!
