

so. I do believe. none of this is physical at least not to me
so, I do believe
that anywhere it goes
t's always with me
it's not the dream that makes you weak it's not the night that makes you sleep but it's a voice. and it's a choice to call you out. or stay at home
none of this is physical
at least not to me
it's always with me it's not the beast. it's not the sheets so soft and warm. all over me but it's the touch. you need so much to move around on this green earth take your money and your drugs
to anyone who wondered what old jebus meant to me take him out to go diving in red patoka sea the brain melts in the twilight with the boar and moving trees your skin looks good in moonlight and god damn those shaky knees the fact that my heart's beating is all the proof you need
