Title: Summon Primal Trinity

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

And through the night I rise
Sheltered by my open eyes
Burn the sacred past that lives within my soulless heart
Branded is her path
To hide our secret behind the mask she wears with untold pride
Sentenced by the blinded mass, evolution is on her side

Unborn Thou art!
Unable to receive the gift I offered Thee
Thus, I'll cleanse this earth from superior existence
Evoked by my anger with every resistance
Against the storm of fire I ride

Never break my will
For every breath I take
Is a step back to primal hate

And thus, my friend, I know Thy fate
What I receive is the cause of hate
Thy limit is eternity
Thy will becomes reality
Thy loss of life shall be my birth
Amidst the creatures of this earth

Although angels fear my sin
I'll never go where Thou hast been
To grant my ancient eyes a view upon the truth
Which keeps the past alive
Wie soll ich vergeben wenn ich nicht vergessen kann
I'll never die
I'll hide our secret behind the mask I wear with all my pride
Sentenced by the blinded mass
Evolution is on my side
