

Framed

I'm framed in love again
Peaking at the end
Baby wants to tame me
So afraid to live a life alone
Should make a happy home
Only used to tame me
Hey, I'm driving her away
Watching?? what you crave
Back and forth I'll sway
Driving her away
Hey, nothing good can stay
Black and white to gray
Back and forth I'll sway
Guess I'll never be what she sees in me
Baby wants to tame me
Blame
She knows something's wrong
She's seen it all along
But she don't want to blame
So afraid to live a life alone
She'd make a happy
Baby wants to tame
Hey, I'm driving her away
Black and white to gray
Back and forth I'll sway
Driving her away
Hey, nothing good can stay
Watching?? what you crave
Back and forth I'll sway
I'm driving her away, away, away
Hey, nothing good can stay
Black and white to gray
Back and forth I'll sway
Yeah
I guess I'll never be what you see in
I guess I'll never be what you see in
I guess I'll never be what you see in me
Baby wants to tame me
