

This place ain't where
I thought I'd be a trapped in
I need fresh air
When's the last time that you
Said that you cared
Just a simple thing like that
Did you forget and just freeze over

Rewind back when we first met
You're such an emotional man
What happened to that?
So sure I'd be always there
You somehow let the feeling drift away

But this heart, this mind
Needs to be treated a little more
Tender...tender
Love's not remote control, I,
Need to be treated a little more
Tender...tender

Yo're caught up, consumed
I'm kind of not feel my thing
But I'm beautiful
Can't you give back something?
Anything at all
I'm still here
I'm waiting
For you to notice and remember

But this heart, this mind
Needs to be treated a little more
Tender...tender
Love's not remote control, I,
Need to be treated a little more
Tender...tender

Don't contrugate it baby
Cos I ain't asking for much
Just for you to leave me
Breathless and move me
Sometimes, anytime
Cos I can't hang around now, oh no
I need a little more now

But this heart, this mind
Needs to be treated a little more
Tender...tender
Love's not remote control, I,
Need to be treated a little more
Tender...tender

But this heart, this mind
Needs to be treated a little more
Tender...tender
Love's not remote control, I,
Need to be treated a little more
Tender...tender
