

For everyone
the story goes there's a special someone to make them whole someone to give their heart completely and you may search high and low

and when you find your angel and when you know then you finally get that feeling it'll be as clear as the air you're breathing that's when the world feels small beneath your feet its when the stars above are only just out of reach when you feel you're alive for the very first time and there's nothing that you can rise above that's when you know that you're in love who can tell the time and place when you see your soul reflected in their face it'll be a spell you're under and it'll hit you just like thunder

it's when the stars above are only just out of reach
and when you hold them in your arms and cant let go that's when you know

for all of my life I have been searching for something I couldn't find but now that I know that you are the one I understand
I read the signs

cos now the world feels small beneath my feet and all the stars above are only just out of reach
and there's nothing that you can rise above that's when you know that your in love
