Title: The curse

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

You're running like a hunted game
Cos you were damned for causing pain.
You'll have the curse at your heels for ever
It will chase you and make you suffer.

You cannot find tranquility,
Endless wandering's your destiny.
You made innocent people suffer
Now this is what your life has to offer.

You have seen the misery
You have caused deliberately.
Still you remained unaffected
Others' feelings you neglected.

This time it's you who is tortured
It was high time the roles altered.
You don't know what's in store for you
You fear that you won't pull through.

Refr.:

When the morning comes
Your fear may be gone
But the curse will be there
The chase has just begun.
