

And I watched through bitter eyes
As the blood filled in the cracks, black
A burning effigy Told me I should kneel 'cause

I'm worshipping
With terror, a disease
Burn the sacred oil

Chorus:
They told us
there'd never come a day
They told us that we need not worry
So we fucked around, thought
this shit would change
And turned our eyes away

I am the power siege
And the rush you will feel, thrill Exploding out of me Through clenched teeth I will scream out

We're suffering
With malice you deceive Puke sold as salvation

They told us
there'd never come a day
They told us that
we need not worry
So we fucked around, thought
this shit would change
And turned our eyes away

Lead: Logan

And I watched it slip away
And you watched it slip away
And we watched it slip away

'Cause no one took a stand
