Title: The lord of illusion download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Don't look back, don't turn back
Don't wait for commission from anyone
Don't say a word, don't expect anything
Silence gives consent

Cover your tearful eyes with a veil
Let your pain be torturing
Cover yourself with a back-sword
Like a slave in chains

You can't show something forever
Life can't always be good
You make yourself be called to dance
The music of the shadows is playing

Storm clouds are gathering, the sword is sharp
Your magic is about to end
The pain is awful, but has an end
You see, appearance kills, you're the only one to know it
Eternal peace is waiting for you And if you must, you'll get out

There is silence, you're examining your bleeding wounds
Perhaps it's another world that gives you another chance
People are mourning but you know that you're not done for You take off your veil and watch them mourning you

You are the Lord of Illusion, you know it well
Prepare for the new show and enjoy yourself
