

Did you think that I would disappear?
Did you think that I would wash away?
Did you think that I would last this long?
Did you think that I would get this strong?

Everytime they try to make me change they just wear me down with more chains

And it feels like that you're with me or against me
and it feels like
that your promises are omens
and it feels like
that to push me is to shove me
and it feels like
that the only way is the wrong way

Did you think that I could be your crutch?
Did you think that life could mean so much?
Did you think that this could end in bust?
Did you think that it's just plain old lust?

Everytime they try to make me change
they just wear me down with more chains

And it feels like
that you're with me or against me
and it feels like
that your promises are omens
and it feels like
that to push me is to shove me
and it feels like
the only way is the wrong way

Everytime they try to make me change
they just wear me down with more chains

And it feels like
that you're with me or against me
and it feels like that your promises are all a mess
and it feels like
that to push me is to shove me
and it feels like
the only way is the wrong way

And it feels like
the only way is the wrong way

And it feels like
the only way is the wrong way (you always push me down)
the only way is the wrong way (you always push me down)
the only way is the wrong way
