Title: The spell

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

I am an atmosphere of cruelty and in your blood i roam my shadow seeks a modest death when all your life is gone see your world is turning round it's a sacrifice to me as the fire's flames turn round it is all that you can see when the lights fades from your eyes then my darkness fills your skies as close as breath to you am i it's you and i

when the wind blows you will know then to a hollow place we go no you're not alone
you're not alone

a thousand fires adore evil winds with no heart how those fires they glow cold and lonely they go all the teachers turn their heads poisoned reason spoil their eggs fallen angel feel your dead in the house of holies who cast that spell upon me in a sense you're innocent

in a sense you're not to blame in a sense you're to shame
