

how can I make this clear ? it seems so simple yet I could spend my whole life saying things that make no sense like life is so unfair yes and this is so unfair but I didn't leave you behind you're still ahead of me if you doubt it let me remind you I'm in love with you at least it's clear to me I just need to sip from the miraculous pitcher that holds water downwards and the next time you make pie I'll be home for a slice and spend my hours holding back because nice guy's finish last if you doubt it let me remind you
I'm in love with you
so take your hand and dry my eyes and when I doubt you know how...remind me too ( the first time I ever saw you I was about four -
- I was supposed to be sleeping -- instead I was ..... ) I'm so much more in love with the way than in way with the love
