

The crumbled ceiling has fallen to the floor
A lull replaces disorder dilemma speaks broken words of the tongue
And still we care not to listen

With blackened fingers
I've touched upon the earth
Alone in places remembered
Misgivings race to the front of your thoughts
The answers there are uncertain

All the thorns of the earth creations
Splinter the cause of aggravation

Lies of mother earth's creation splinter a cause of aggravation
The thorns of Earth's creation Rolling the soul with aggravation

The crumbled ceiling has fallen to the floor
A lull replaces disorder
Misgivings race to the front of your thoughts
The answers there are uncertain
