i'm tired. of sleeping my life away.
i'm tired. of wasting my time.
just scared of this feeling of hurt.
it's awaking.

i'm tired. of wishing my fears away.
"take your bow an whistle". i heard my father sing.
"the answer lies in front of us. so let your work begin"
- it shivers, it quivers...

i'm tired. of thinking 'bout yesterday.
i'm tired. of reading the news.
"the wavelength that weakens the weak. must be dying".

i'm tired. of staying awake all night.
i'm tired. of that struggle within.
completely beating me up - it's amazing.
i take my bow an whistle now. angered by that lies.
the answer lies in front of us. tearing up the ties.
- it shivers, it quivers...

when you gotta throw that back slip back.
and you shiver for the one track other track.
and my lover for the motion covering... throw it back...

i'm tired. of wasting my time.
it's awaking.

i'm tired. of wishing my fears away.
