

The sky has quite a different shade of blue
Don't see no storm clouds, holding me the view
There's something different in the air tonight
There's nothing missin' and I feel alright
What's come over me
I'm getting stronger every day
A new awakening I wanna celebrate

No more tears to cry
Now I feel free inside
I, I've made up my mind
To get up, to get out, to get over you
Do what you wanna do
Say what you gotta say
I'm finally on my way
To get up, to get out, to get over you

For so long I only blamed myself
Locked my love away inside a shell
Afraid to try, afraid to give again
No way, no how was someone gettin' in

No no no no no

Now I realize
My life's about to start
I just needed time
To open up my heart yeah

No more tears to cry
Now I feel free inside
I, I've made up my mind
To get up, to get out, to get over you
Do what you wanna do
Say what you gotta say
I'm finally on my way
To get up, to get out, to get over you

No more tears to cry
Now I feel free inside
I'm finally on my way
To get up, to get out, to get over you

The sky has quite a different shade of blue
Don't see no storm clouds, holding me the view
There's something different in the air tonight
There's nothing missin' and I feel alright

What's come over
My life's about to start
A new awakening I wanna celebrate
Oh no no no no no

No more tears to cry
Now I feel free inside
I, I've made up my mind
Do what you wanna do
I'm finally on my way

No more tears to cry
Now I feel free inside
I, I've made up my mind
Do what you wanna do
I'm finally on my way
To get up, to get out, to get over you

Over you, over you
