Mark:

You used to say, everyday.
We will always be this way .
Flying Angels lifting high,
to reach the sun were I belong.
Girl you know you are the one.
Above the clouds I see you cry.

Christian:

You know that when you smile you stop the rain
and we will be together once again.

Mark:

Although I'm gone, remember me.
Please be strong I'll never leave.
and just hold on, to the memories.
Coz while I'll here, all I'm thinking about is tomorrow.

Ben:

I've always know the love you've shown.
Means you'll never be alone
There'll be times you wonder why.

Paul:

But seeing you with someone new.
Used to make me feel so blue.
But now I'm with you, all the time.

Ben:

You know that when you smile you stop the rain
and we will be together once again.

Mark:

Although I'm gone, remember me.
Please be strong I'll never leave.
Girl just hold on, to the memories.
Coz while I'm here, all I'm thinking about is tomorrow.

Ben:

From the moment that I looked into your eyes.
All of my life I thought I'll be there by your side
I wish I'll took the time to find the words to say.

Christian:

You know that when you smile, you stop the rain.
And we will be together once again.

Paul:

Although I'm gone, remember me.
Please be strong I'll never leave.

Ben:

Just hold on, to the memories.
Coz while I'll here, all I'm thinking about is tomorrow

Mark:

Coz while I'm here, all I'm thinking about is tomorrow
